Notice of Trustee Elections

November 2024

Dear Member,

Thank you for your interest in serving on the Board of Trustees for Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative, Inc. This letter will briefly outline some of the roles and responsibilities of being a trustee. If you have any questions about becoming a trustee, please do not hesitate to contact our office or to seek the advice of a current trustee.

Trustees for PPEC face many challenges. The Cooperative is a $120 million corporation with over $42 million in annual revenue. The electric utility business is complicated, and the cooperative network of utilities can be confusing. Trustees must understand that it is necessary to be committed to the organization and to fellow trustees. The Cooperative requires a professional Board of Trustees committed to preparing the cooperative to meet member needs far into the future. Trustees do not spend time or get involved with the day-to-day operations of the cooperative; they are instead focused on achieving long-term, strategic goals.

The Cooperative understands trustees must commit a lot of time to the position. Board materials are provided in electronic format using an iPad. Trustees need to have basic computer knowledge and ability. Typical monthly board material packets may contain over 100 pages of reports and financial data. In addition to monthly board packets, trustees can expect to receive regular email communication from the President/CEO.

Training and ongoing education are important to being a good PPEC Trustee. To be eligible for continued re-election after six years, trustees must complete two levels of board certification from NRECA, our National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. These certificates are Certified Cooperative Director (CCD) and the Board Leadership Certification (BLC). Continuing education is also highly suggested and leads to Director Gold certification. Most of the training is offered in Columbus, OH, and/or Indianapolis, IN, as day trips. The CCD and BLC are required certifications and must be obtained by all trustees.

The Board of Trustees meets monthly on the third Thursday. There are other meetings scheduled throughout the year, as well as the previously mentioned education courses. Serving on the Board of Trustees requires a serious commitment. Trustees are not employees of the cooperative, nor do they receive a salary or benefits. Trustees are compensated for their time in meetings and education courses by receiving a per diem of $450 (additional amounts may be paid depending on certifications received). This includes preparation time outside of normal meetings and training sessions. Trustees are required to be prepared for all meetings and to attend at least 75% of all regularly scheduled meetings.

Board members also receive a monthly stipend of $150 to cover incidental costs of home equipment, paper, Internet, etc.

I want to thank you again for your interest in serving on the Board of Trustees. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me by calling our office at 800-686-2357.

Sincerely,

Randy Price
President and CEO

II. PREAMBLE:

All of the powers of PPEC are conferred upon and may be exercised by the Board of Trustees, except as reserved to or conferred upon the members by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Code of Regulations. - g. Publicly support decisions of the Board of Trustees except in extraordinary circumstances where the trustee believes that there is a clear and present threat to the survival of PPEC.

2. Pursuant to their fiduciary duties of loyalty and care, trustees are required to protect and hold confidential all non-public information obtained due to their trusteeship position absent the express permission of the Board of Trustees to disclose such information. Accordingly,
    - a. No trustee shall use confidential information for their own personal benefit or to the benefit of persons or entities; and

In no case shall such information be sought through other employees, agents, or independent contractors (unless after consultation with and being advised by the system's attorney because an actual or potential criminal activity of the President and CEO is involved).
  - b. In any instance in which a trustee has sought access to information not generally made available or reported to the Board of Trustees, the President and CEO shall report on this at the next meeting of the Board of Trustees.
  - c. Information received by a trustee pursuant to this policy shall not be revealed by them to any other persons (the remaining trustees, President and CEO, and system attorney excepted) unless they are sincerely convinced that they are compelled to do so by legal considerations.

PAULDING PUTNAM ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I. OBJECTIVE:

To spell out those areas where the trustees and employees of PPEC should avoid conflicts of interest, or any appearance of conflict of interest.

II. POLICY CONTENT:

1. Conflicts of Interest as defined in this policy shall be limited to substantial and materials conflicts of interest. Substantial and material conflicts shall be any condition that impacts the judgment of the trustee or employee or any instance where the trustee or employee puts personal interest before the interests of PPEC.
2. Trustees and employees are prohibited from receiving gifts, fees, loans, or favors from suppliers, contractors, consultants, or financial houses, which obligates or induces them to compromise their responsibilities to negotiate, obligate, inspect or audit, or award contracts, with the best interests of PPEC uppermost in mind. This does not prohibit receiving gifts or favors of nominal value or casual entertainment that meet all standards of ethical business conduct, and involves no element of concealment.
3. The complete confidentiality of business information must be respected at all times. Trustees and employees are prohibited from knowingly disclosing such information to those who do not have the need to know, or whose interest may be adverse to PPEC both inside or outside the organization; or in any way using such information for personal gain or advancement; or to the detriment of PPEC; or to individually conduct negotiations or make contacts or inquiries on behalf of PPEC unless officially designated to do so.
4. Trustees and employees are prohibited from acquiring or having a financial interest in any property which PPEC acquires or a direct or indirect financial interest in a supplier, contractor, consultant, or other entity with which PPEC does business. This does not prohibit the ownership of securities in a publicly owned company except in a substantial amount by those in a position to materially influence or affect the business relationship between PPEC and such publicly owned company. Any other interest in or relationship with an outside organization or individual having business dealings with PPEC is prohibited if this interest or relationship might tend to impair the ability of the trustees to serve the best interests of PPEC.

5. If members of the immediate family of a trustee or employee have a financial interest as specified above, such interest shall be fully disclosed to the Board of Trustees which shall decide if such interest should prevent PPEC from entering into a particular transaction, purchase, or employment of services. The term "immediate family" means children, husband, wife, sister, brother, parents, foster, or step-parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, mother or father-in-law, sister or brother-in-law, or any relative residing in the PPEC's trustees' or employees' households.
6. Every trustee and employee of PPEC is expected to avoid situations which might be construed as conflicts of interest since it is not feasible in a policy statement such as this to describe all the circumstances and conditions that might be or have the potential of being considered conflicts of interest.

III. RESPONSIBILITY:

1. The Board Chairman shall ensure the enforcement of this policy.
2. Actions considered inconsistent with these policies are to be reported to the entire Board of Trustees.
3. Each trustee and employee must disclose any situation, which, in their opinion, violates, may violate, or could appear to violate the intent of this policy.
4. Each trustee shall be required to annually certify that they are in compliance with this policy.

Once elected as a PPEC Board Member, you'll be required to sign this annual certification. Please review prior to submitting your application. This is for your reference only and doesn't need signed unless you are officially elected.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES ANNUAL CERTIFICATION

I, PPEC TRUSTEE, will above all things be honest and diligent.

I will follow, at all times, PPEC policies, including but not limited to, Trustee Duties and Standards of Conduct (Policy B001) and Conflict of Interest (Policy B002). Copies of these policies have been provided to me.

I will place the interests of PPEC above my own personal interests. I will represent PPEC honestly and diligently and refuse to surrender my responsibilities to special interests or partisan political groups. I will not expect any special privileges from PPEC because I am a trustee.

I will give as careful attention to the affairs of PPEC as I give to my own business. I will not become financially interested in any business or agency doing business with PPEC or in any business or agency that has interests adverse to those of PPEC.

I will disclose to my fellow members of PPEC Board of Trustees and the President and CEO any fact, situation, business relationship or official position that constitutes a conflict of interest or may appear to constitute a conflict of interest in any question or issue that may come before the Board of Trustees. All requests (from media or membership) made directly to a member of the Board of Trustees should be immediately forwarded to the President and CEO or in their absence, an authorized spokesperson.

I will give the necessary time to trustees' meetings. I will not interfere with management, but will limit myself to the formulation of business and management policies.

I will do independent and careful thinking. I will be open-minded and realize that the view of individual trustees cannot always prevail. I will recognize that as a board member, I have no legal authority as an individual and that decisions can be made only by a majority vote at a board meeting.

I will not take private action that might compromise the Board of Trustees or management and will not discuss the confidential affairs of PPEC with unauthorized persons or employees other than the President and CEO, unless delegated by the Board of Trustees to do so.

I will study the business of the rural electric program; and I will encourage management to strive for continuous process efficiency; I will meet all educational goals set by board policy to further understand the business and my role.

I will encourage and respect the free expression of opinion in board meetings by my fellow board members and others who seek a hearing before the Board of Trustees.

I will curb emotion and apply reason and common sense to all problems.

I pledge to do my best for PPEC in this position of high honor and trust.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
  - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
  - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
  - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
  - you are on public assistance;
  - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:
